CALL FOR NOMINATIONS 'CHARLES V EUROPEAN AWARD' 2012

The European Academy of Yuste Foundation created the 'Charles V European award' in order to reward the work of those persons who, through their effort and dedication, have contributed to the general knowledge and enhancement of Europe's cultural, social, scientific, and historical values, as well as to the process of European integration.

The 'CHARLES V EUROPEAN AWARD' evokes Charles V's resignation of his powers, retiring to the Royal Monastery of Yuste, where he spent his last two years of life. The 'CHARLES V EUROPEAN AWARD' will be granted by the Board of Trustees of the European Academy of Yuste Foundation at the proposal of a jury appointed by the Foundation to that end.
